

I strongly feel that the proposed Broadcast Flag serves the narrow interest of an industry at the expense of virtually every American.

It makes no sense to me that an industry should be granted this (dubious) protection against piracy at the expense of my basic rights.

Please do the right thing by the American consumer.